

Why join us?

We support local libraries and their Friends.

We promote local libraries and their Friends.

We advocate funding for libraries on a local, state, and national basis.

And because membership in FOTL provides:

- A network of statewide library supporters for sharing ideas and news through a membership Listserv providing interaction with other member Friends, trustees, and advocates.
- Assistance in creating, revitalizing, and developing a local Friends of the Library group.
- A unified voice to advocate for local libraries and all Tennessee libraries.
- Learning and training experiences about library trends and services through FOTL publications and attendance at workshops and conferences co-sponsored with the Tennessee Library Association and the Tennessee State Library & Archives.
- A Spring conference bringing Friends, librarians, trustees, and advocates together from around the state for special training and inspiration.
- A Web Site (<http://www.friendstnlibraries.org>) with information about Friends' activities and programs in Tennessee and around the country with a special members' section of resources.
- A quarterly Newsletter, Facebook Page, blog, and training resources.
- Grants (<http://www.friendstnlibraries.org/awards-grants/>) to support Friends' projects related to fundraising, membership, and advocacy.
- Awards (<http://www.friendstnlibraries.org/awards-grants/>) for outstanding contributions by individuals or groups in Tennessee libraries.
- An opportunity to participate in FOTL projects and committees: "The more we participate, the more we gain from our membership in organizations" (Don Reynolds, 2014-16 FOTL President).

To add your voice to the combined voices of the Friends of Tennessee Libraries, please join us by completing the membership application form (on reverse side of this page) or from web site (<http://www.friendstnlibraries.org/support-us/membership/>) and send with a check to:
